Abstract of paper [1].

This paper contains the proof that “almost all” positive integers can be represented as a sum of a prime and a value of a polynomial \( f \in \mathbb{Z}[x] \), provided that \( f \) satisfies a necessary arithmetical condition.

References